

CINEPEACE

A UNIQUE FILM EVENT!

Perspectives on the struggles and successes, dreams and realities of Israeli-Arab Peace & Co-existence

Thursday, July 28, 2005

6:45 - Seating Begins

7:15 - Showtime!

Harmony Gold Preview House

7655 Sunset Boulevard

(4 blocks east of Fairfax. Free parking - enter underground garage on Sunset, or back parking lot on Stanley)

A Q&A with the filmmakers in attendance & a dessert reception will follow the film screening

To Purchase Cine-Peace Tickets

& Group and Sponsorship info

- Return the Response Form
- Phone 323/934-3480, or
- Go to www.peacenow.org/socal

THE FILMS

In English or with English subtitles
(Total running time is approximately 2 hours)

West Bank Story

A musical comedy about Israelis and Palestinians that takes place between dueling felafel stands in the West Bank.

- Official selection for the 2005 Sundance Film Festival
- Award-winner at the 2005 Malibu International Film Festival

Ordinary People - From Bethlehem to Tel Aviv

U.S. Premiere of an episode in the groundbreaking Israeli-Palestinian documentary series widely broadcast in Europe

- From the award-winning producer of the highly acclaimed HBO/Cinemax Production "39 Pounds of Love"

The Red Toy

From the renowned Sam Spiegel Film School, Israel

- Selected Best Short Film at the 2004 Jerusalem International Film Festival

The Junction

Israeli documentary with Gaza's Netzarim Junction as the jumping off point to illuminate the Israeli-Palestinian conflict and its impact on individuals, families, and societies. Timely and provocative, especially given Israel's disengagement from Gaza beginning in August, 2005

- Selected Best Documentary at the 2003 Haifa Film Festival
- Official entry at 2004 Global Visions Festival

Learn more about the films at www.peacenow.org/socal

שלום אמריקני
AMERICANS FOR PEACE
NOW
SECURE THE DREAM

